- Where the report sets out conditions for the safe working of the lifts, these conditions must be adhered to. (These thorough examinations should not be confused with normal maintenance activities).
- Scoil Mhuire will ensure that they have a current report of thorough examination. Scoil Mhuire will also be in possession of a logbook where details of any repairs or checks have been recorded.

58. Lone Working

It is the policy of the school that staff (with the exception of the Senior Management, Administrative Staff, Maintenance Staff) are not permitted to be on the premises unaccompanied. At no stage will teaching staff be permitted to be on the premises unaccompanied out of school hours i.e., at night or weekends regardless of the activity to be carried out. If working alone, permitted staff are required to 'report in' to the Principal or designated person to inform that they are safely leaving the premises.

- You should not work alone if you know you have a medical condition that might cause you to become incapacitated or unconscious. Also, when working alone, do not attempt any tasks which have been identified as medium or high risk, or which common sense tells you are potentially hazardous.
- If you arrive at school outside of normal school hours and find another colleague is already in the building, let them know you are on site.
- If you are about to leave the building, and just one or two other colleagues are remaining on site, let them know you are going.

- Risk assessments are particularly important in the practical subjects. Activities including the use of hazardous chemicals or machinery, field trips, science-based practical's/ demonstrations /research projects, hazardous physical manipulations, maintenance of hazardous machinery, etc, require rigorous risk assessments with carefully documented and implemented controls.
- Where possible, controls and other safety measures identified in the risk assessment process must be put in place immediately.
- In other cases where the scale or cost prohibits immediate action, a programme of action must be planned by the relevant teacher with the Principal/ Board of Management and put into effect.
- Depending on the risks involved, appropriate interim action must be taken i.e., if high, discontinuing the operation in the interim must be considered.
- The implementation of these arrangements must be reviewed at regular intervals.
- Where the risk cannot be reduced to acceptable levels and finance is not available to implement appropriate controls, it is our policy that the activity will cease, or the area closed.
- All final decisions on risk control must consider the relevant legal requirements and industry codes of practice.

83. Wellbeing – Staff and Stress

What is Work-related Stress?

Stress can be broadly defined as the negative reactions people have to aspects of their environment. Work-related stress simply refers to those reactions due to pressure within the working environment.

“Stress occurs when an individual perceives an imbalance between the demands placed on them on the one hand, and their ability to cope on the other” (Professor Tom Cox, Institute of Work, Health, and Organisation).

Each individual member of staff brings into the school their own personality, medical history, psychological make-up, and coping skills. As a result, what may be stressful for one staff member may not be for another. However, some workplace factors inevitably lead to stress, such as poor communications, role ambiguity, career stagnation, low participation in decision-making, conflict, etc.

Effects of Stress

The effects of stress differ from individual to individual. The experience of stress can change the way a person feels, thinks, and behaves and can also produce physical changes. A person will often experience stress in several ways. When you are stressed, you are less likely to eat well, get adequate sleep, take exercise, and relax. You can also experience irritability, reduced attention span and memory impairment. Irritability due to stress can create secondary problems such as the loss of social support. Being stressed over a prolonged period has been associated with increased blood pressure and cardiovascular problems.

Aims

- Encourage staff well-being within Scoil Mhuire and discourage the stigma attached to stress.
- Raise awareness of ill health associated with stress, its causes, and associated factors.
- To reduce as far as is reasonably practicable within the confines of a school environment, the sources of stress.
- Enhance the factors within Scoil Mhuire that reduce the risk of stress.
- Educate staff in techniques for coping with pressure and stress.
- Provide systems of support and make sure they are well publicised.
- Encourage staff to get help at an early stage.
- Make sure there is confidentiality for those who want help.

As staff how can I cope with stress at work?

Procedures

- Unruly students have been recognised as one of the major sources of stress for teachers. Scoil Mhuire recognises this, and teachers should avail of the assistance that is provided to them by the Class Tutors, Year Heads, the Deputy Principals and the Principal etc.
- Clear policies on behaviour exist in the school and these should be referred to. These policies are continually reviewed, and staff are consulted in policy development.
- The Board of Management ensures that staff roles and responsibilities are clearly defined.
- High priority is given to staff training and the Board of Management supports and encourages participation in relevant in-service courses in so far as is reasonably practicable.
- The Board of Management recognises that communication and consultation with staff, which promotes openness and discussion, is essential.
- The Principal brings concerns of staff to the attention of the Board.
- The Board of Management and the Principal ensure, as far as is reasonably practicable, that the physical work environments for staff are safe and do not expose them to risks that may give rise to stress at work.
- It is school practice to make sure that staff take time to review and celebrate positive achievements.
- Social occasions are organised throughout the school term to give staff a chance to relax and socialise with each other outside of the workplace.
- If an employee feels that they are suffering from work-related stress it is important that they seek medical help. They should then discuss with the Principal the causes of their stress and as far as reasonably practicable, the Principal will deal with the issues concerned.

85. Work at Height

- Where working at height becomes necessary, we refer to Part 4 of the 2013 (Work at Height) Regulations and take the recommended steps to minimise risk.
- Work at height means working in a place (except a staircase in a permanent workplace) where a person could be injured by falling from it, even if it is at or below ground level.
- Staff must do all that is reasonably practicable to prevent anyone falling a distance liable to cause personal injury.
- The Regulations set out a simple hierarchy for managing work at a height:
 - Avoid work at height where this is reasonably practicable.
 - Use work equipment or other measures to prevent falls where you cannot avoid working at height, and
 - Where you cannot eliminate the risk of a fall, use work equipment or other measures to minimise the distance and consequences of a fall.
- The Regulations also require the school to ensure that:
 - All work at height is properly planned, organised, supervised, and carried out.
 - The place where work at height is done is safe.
 - All work at height takes account of weather conditions.
 - Those involved in work at height are instructed and trained.
 - Equipment for work at height is appropriately inspected.
 - The risks from fragile surfaces are properly controlled. and
 - Injury from falling objects is prevented.
- The risk assessment and the action taken should be proportionate to the harm that could occur if no action was taken. It should include a careful examination of what harm could be caused from working at height with a view to taking the necessary steps to reduce the likelihood of this harm occurring, either through avoiding the activity or, where this is not reasonably practicable, by carrying it out in a safe manner using the appropriate work equipment.

86. Violence

The Board of Management of Scoil Mhuire is committed to the continuance of a school characterised by mutual respect, free from threat or intimidation. To this end dangerous, threatening, aggressive or violent behaviour (hereafter called violent behaviour), whether verbal or physical, is not permitted in the school or among the school community. A separate Code of Behaviour Policy deals with students.

During their work school staff may be at risk in the form of verbal abuse, threats, assaults, or other forms of intimidation. This behaviour may come from pupils, parents, guardians, other staff members or visitors. Violent behaviour is categorised as acts against people or property.

The Board of Management of Scoil Mhuire recognises its duties to:

- Provide a safe environment for staff and other persons present in the school.
- Minimise the risk of assaults on teachers / principal / Deputy Principals or other staff employed in the school.
- Support staff that have been assaulted or threatened with assault. And ensuring that appropriate action is taken to safeguard against a recurrence.

Preventative Measures

- Policies on violence go hand in hand with policies in relation to bullying, harassment, behaviour etc. These policies need to be reviewed frequently to identify and resolve weaknesses to lessen the threat of violence.
- Communication between home and school should be frequent, open, and positive. In this context policies and procedures in relation to visits to the school, meeting with teachers, school discipline, complaint procedures etc. should be in place and parents/ guardians encouraged to communicate with the school as appropriate.
- Parents /visitors who wish to have a consultation with a class teacher should make a prior appointment through the main office. In urgent cases where a prearranged appointment is not appropriate, parents should, in the first instance, report to the school secretary.
- All visitors are required to report to the school secretary's office. Signs displayed within the school grounds and premises outline this.
- Video surveillance equipment has been installed to help deter violent acts.

Steps to be followed in the Event of an Assault

- In the event of an assault, a staff member should not try to resist if cash or goods are the obvious motive for the attack. Depending on the circumstances and the level of training, the member should endeavour to calm down the assailant and seek assistance as quickly as possible.
- The incident should be immediately reported to the Principal/Deputy Principals.
- Where necessary, immediate medical assistance should be sought. Debriefing is essential as soon as possible after the event. Staff are entitled to time off work and counselling if needed.
- The matter should be reported to the Gardaí, where appropriate. The staff member who was assaulted would normally make this report.
- The details of the incident should be recorded. The information recorded should include personal details (name, age, occupation) of the victim and assailant where available, description of what happened, why did it happen, when and where it happened, description of any injuries sustained and weapons used, what procedure failed. Situations in which staff members have been intimidated or threatened with physical violence should also be recorded. Reports should be made to the Health and Safety Authority and the States Claims Agency as required.
- The Board of Management should be notified of the incident and where necessary an emergency meeting of the Board of Management should take place. The Board should consider notifying its legal advisors and insurance company of the incident as appropriate.
- Where an assault is by a pupil the matter should be dealt with in accordance with the school's Code of Behaviour.
- Repeatedly aggressive pupils should be referred, with the consent of parents/guardians, for psychological assessment to assess the pupils' social and emotional needs and to determine how these can be best met.
- Where a parent/guardian or visitor commits the assault, the Board of Management should immediately instruct the person in writing not to make direct contact with the staff member/school pending full consideration of the matter. Subsequently the Board of Management should correspond with the parent/guardian or visitor stating:
 - that it considers the assault unacceptable and what action the Board of Management intends to take.
 - outlining what pre-conditions should be met before access to the school is restored.
- Where a staff member commits the alleged assault, the Board of Management should immediately instruct the member in writing not to make direct contact with the victim pending full consideration and investigation of the matter. The question of suspension may also need to be considered prior to further action/disciplinary measures being taken.
